PRIVACY NOTICE

On 25th May 2018, a new data protection law, the General Data Protection Law ('GDPR'), came into effect in the UK. The GDPR gives you more control over your personal information, and a clearer explanation about how it is used.

We have written a new privacy and data protection policy which explains how we use, and protect, any personal information we collect about you for the purpose of providing our services.

Our new Privacy Information Notice - and our cookies policy - can be found by clicking the link on the home page on our website (www.thebefriendingscheme.org.uk). If you have any questions about it please send us an email at info@thebefriendingscheme.org.uk or call 01787 371333 and we'd be happy to help. Our postal address can also be found at the bottom of our home page on our website.

Image consent

The Befriending Scheme regularly takes images and videos for fundraising, publicity and other purposes to help achieve our aims.

This might include (but is not limited to), printed and online publicity, social media, press releases and funding applications.

If you are happy for your image to be used in this manner, please tick the box

Marketing

The Befriending Scheme would like to send you details of events that are upcoming, newsletters and information that is relevant to you accessing our services.

This might include (but is not limited to) e-mail, post and telephone.

If you are happy for us to contact you for this purpose, please tick the box
